

International Catholic Centre of Cooperation with UNESCO

ICCC FORUM under the patronage of UNESCO

"Metamorphosis of the World,
How far can Mankind go to change human beings?
What compass for education?"

Three Webinars in Spring 2021
by videoconference, registration required

1. Webinar 1: April 8th from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. CET

Forum Opening:

Messages: Mrs Stefania Giannini, Representative of the Director-General, Assistant Director-General Education, UNESCO;

Mrs Christine Roche, ICCC Honorary President

Introduction: Father Eric Salobir, President of Human Technology Foundation//OPTIC; consultant to the Pontifical Council for Culture; member, National Digital Council, France

Faced with New technologies: Opportunities and Risks for Humanity

Round Table moderated by Mr Emmanuel Leclerc (Philosopher, Professor):

Health for Tomorrow: Mr Hervé Chneiweiss, Director of Research at CNRS; President, Inserm Ethical Committee and CIB (International Bioethics Committee)

Society and our Freedoms: Pr. JF Braunstein, Professor of contemporary philosophy in PARIS I Sorbonne

Economics and Society, Needs and Aspirations: Mrs Michèle Debonneuil, Economist

Testimonial: To what extent can the law change humankind: finality, methodology, example (connected objects)

Mr Christian Byk, French National Commission for UNESCO; Secretary General, International Association of Law, Ethics and Science

Questions and Answers - Orientations

2. Webinar 2: May 11th from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. CET

Faced with Artificial Intelligence, What should be the anthropological vision of Humanity in mutation?

Which ethical references should be considered about Humanity to educate human beings and not robots?

Introductory Presentation: Latest evolutions in our civilization; what destiny for tomorrow; which values and challenges for education in the face of Artificial Intelligence?

Pr. Christoph Wulf, Professor of Anthropology and Philosophy of Education at Free University of Berlin;

Mr Nathanaël Wallenhorst, PhD, Science of Education, Environmental Sciences and Political Science. Vice-Dean, Faculty of Education, Catholic University Angers France, FONDACIO

Round Table moderated by Mr François Prouteau, Dr in Education Science, President of Fondacio
Reflections about Humanity:

Does Artificial Intelligence lead us to the need to reconsider Humanity?

What human needs can be met by Artificial Intelligence?

Mrs Gabriela Ramos, Assistant Director-General for Human and Social Sciences, UNESCO

Mrs Marie Hélène Parizeau, Full Professor, Philosophy Faculty, University Laval, Québec; President, World Commission Ethics of Scientific and Technology Knowledge, UNESCO (COMEST), 2015 - 2019

Mr Rabbi Yann Boissière, member of Judaism in movement; President of The Voices of Peace

Pr Lazare Poamé, Full Professor, UNESCO Bioethics Chair, 2009 - 2020; President, University of Bouaké-la-neuve, Ivory Coast.

Question and Answer - Orientations

3. Webinar 3: June 3rd from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. CET

In the age of Artificial Intelligence, which educational orientations should be implemented to favor the construction of Human Beings?

Introduction

Mrs Marie Hélène Parizeau

Father Eric Salobir

Mr Sobhi Tawil, Director Future of Learning and Innovation at UNESCO

Round table moderated by Mr Emmanuel Leclercq, Philosopher, Professor:

What compass for education should be used in the AI world?

Participants:

Pr. Laurent Bibard, Professor ESSEC, Head, Faculty of Management and Philosophy;

Pr. Pierre Giorgini, Founder of ENIC Telecom Lille, Former Rector of Catholic University Lille France

Mrs Tanella Boni, Poet, philosopher and professor University of Ivory Coast;

Mrs Nour Kilzi, Lebanon, doctoral student in international law at Paris I, OIEC/International Office of Catholic Education;

Pr Roberto Luppi, Research Fellow in Philosophy of Law at LUMSA (Rome).

Questions and Answers

Reflections about Education: Contributions of NGOs' collective work of the ICCC platform.

Perspectives and orientations:

We have science, will we gain wisdom?

What Compass should be used for Education?

Next Steps: A project over the next three years, in connection with UNESCO's flagship project "Futures of Education: Learning to become" and in response to the call of Pope Francesco for a "Global Compact on Education".